ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The information provided in the previous petition, filed as docket entry No. 2556, has been amended as follows:

Violation No. 1 - has been updated to include additional positive drug tests results on February 14 and February 25, 2014.

Violation No. 2 - has been added to report the defendant has failed to pay the $75.00 balance of her $100.00 special assessment.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No.   Nature of Noncompliance

1.                    The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance.

Since beginning supervision, Ms. Whitlow has tested positive for marijuana on six different occasions, each confirmed positive by the testing laboratory.

|                  |                   |
|------------------|-------------------|
| October 23, 2013 | January 22, 2014  |
| December 3, 2013 | February 14, 2014 |
| January 2, 2014  | February 25, 2014 |

When questioned by the probation officer on October 23, 2013, Ms. Whitlow admitted to smoking a marijuana joint on October 21, 2013, one day prior to being released from custody on October 22, 2013. Ms Whitlow reported she was on an approved home pass from the halfway house and smoked the marijuana joint with a friend, while in her apartment complex's parking lot.

When questioned by the probation officer on December 3, 2013, Ms. Whitlow admitted to taking six hits off one "blunt" on Thanksgiving Day, while visiting with relatives at her aunt's residence. She reported she made a "stupid mistake" and it would not happen again.

When questioned by the probation officer on January 2, 2014, Ms. Whitlow denied any new use of marijuana. It wasn't until she tested positive for marijuana, again, on January 22, 2014, that Ms. Whitlow admitted to smoking a marijuana joint on Christmas Eve, given to her by her uncle. She admitted to smoking the joint in her apartment complex's parking lot. Ms. Whitlow further admitted to smoking another joint on January 10, 2014, after getting off work. She continued to report she keeps making "stupid mistakes" but understands the consequences of her continued drug use.

When questioned by the probation officer on February 25, 2014, Ms. Whitlow, again, denied any new use of marijuana. After further questioning, Ms. Whitlow admitted to taking a few puffs off a marijuana joint on her birthday, January 24, 2014. She reported she did not think it would still be in her system.

2.                    The defendant shall pay a special assessment in the amount of $100.

Even though she is employed on a full-time basis, Ms. Whitlow has failed to pay the remaining $75.00 balance of her $100.00 special assessment since beginning supervision on October 22, 2013.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Chanita Whitlow is employed, full-time, by United Record Pressing, and lives in Goodlettsville, Tennessee. She began her two-year term of supervised release on October 22, 2013, and is due to terminate supervision on October 21, 2015.

A report was submitted to the Court on November 1, 2013, regarding Ms. Whitlow's violation of testing positive for marijuana on October 23, 2013. The Court ordered no action at that time. Ms. Whitlow was given a verbal reprimand, referred for outpatient substance abuse treatment, and re-instructed to not use any illegal substances.

A report was submitted to the Court on December 20, 2013, regarding Ms. Whitlow's violation to testing positive for marijuana on December 3, 2013. The Court ordered no action at that time. Ms. Whitlow was given another verbal reprimand and re-instructed, again, to not use any illegal substances.

Following Mr. Whitlow's positive drug test on October 23, 2013, she was referred to Centerstone Mental Health for a substance abuse assessment and weekly outpatient treatment. Her therapist is aware of her continued use of illegal substances and she is currently participating in treatment as recommended, around her work schedule. The probation officer has given Ms. Whitlow multiple verbal reprimands for her illegal drug use and afforded her the opportunity to participate in outpatient substance abuse treatment, but she continues to use marijuana.

A petition was submitted to the Court on February 12, 2014, regarding Ms. Whitlow's continued use of marijuana. The Court ordered the issuance of summons on February 18, 2014, and Ms. Whitlow was ordered to appear at the U.S. Marshal's Office on or before March 5, 2014. Ms. Whitlow appeared on her summons on March 5, 2014, and was released to the same conditions of supervised release, pending her revocation hearing.

Following Ms. Whitlow's most recent positive drug test on February 25, 2014, the probation officer encouraged her to enter, and successfully complete, inpatient substance abuse treatment, in order to help her deal with her marijuana addiction. Previous attempts were made by the probation office, but Ms. Whitlow reported she could stop using marijuana on her own. She agreed to enter inpatient treatment, admitting she had a problem with marijuana. The probation office arranged Ms. Whitlow's admission into New Leaf Recovery's 28-day inpatient substance abuse treatment program, in Cookeville, Tennessee, to be March 6, 2014, the day after she was to appear on her summons, as ordered by the Court. Ms. Whitlow entered New Leaf Recovery on March 6, 2014, and was successfully discharged on March 20, 2014.

Ms. Whitlow has been drug tested on three different occasions, following her discharge from New Leaf Recovery on March 20, 2014, and each result was negative for illegal substances. She has been referred back to Centerstone for weekly outpatient treatment. Her therapist is aware of her successful completion of inpatient treatment and her subsequent negative drug test results.

Update of Offender Characteristics:

There is no additional information relevant to this section that has not already been provided in this petition.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is respectfully requested that these additional violations be considered at a revocation hearing to be held before Your Honor on April 21, 2014. These new violations have been discussed with Assistant U.S. Attorney Sunny A.M. Koshy, who concurs with the recommendation.
